LOCALS.

—Hello! Has it been hot where you live?

—You will find something interesting in our business locals this week.

—Why not have a big Farmers' Dinner in Clinton: about the first of August, after crops are laid by?

—The heat of last Saturday was unprecedented for May, the fact is it beat the record of all last summer.

—Prof. Brewer's prosperous school at Hayne Academy will close on Friday, May 24th. Ex-Congressman, Wharton J. Green, of Fayetteville, will deliver the annual address.

—The sudden descent of hot weather last week brought to many persons of sedentary lives an attack of "spring appetite"—that is, no appetite to speak of.—N. Y. World.

—The Clinton School for Boys and Girls, Rev. J. W. Turner, principal, closed work yesterday. A picnic will be given the school Friday, at which time the prizes, etc., will be awarded.

—The closing exercises of Salem High School, in Sampson county, of which Mr. Marion Butler is the principal, will take place on the 23d and 24th instant. Hon. Kemp P. Battle will deliver the address on the occasion.—Wil. Messenger.

—THE CAUCASIAN file lacks three copies of being complete. Any subscriber who can furnish us with a copy of issues of July 26th, 1888, or August 16th and 18th, or November 8th, 1888, or all of them, will do us a great favor.

—The board of town aldermen held a meeting Monday, and Dame Rumor sent a confidence message was sent to his swiftness that on or before May glides into June, that he make his pretty self scarce upon the city's boulevards, where once he held himself garlanded in offensive array—amen!

—There is an Atlanta, Ga., mouse in town. Some six weeks ago Mr. T. M. Ferrell received a lot of coffee and baskets from an Atlanta house, and upon opening the case around one or them found a mouse confined therein. His mouse-ship's quarters have not been moved and he is yet alive notwithstanding the fact that he has had neither food nor drink within the past six weeks.

—Why not have a fair next Fall? Sampson was once noted for having one of the best County Fairs in the State. Can we not resurrect it? Surely the glory of Israel is not departed forever. Man is a progressive being, on one condition: that he come in contact with other men. No human intellect, unaided and alone ever produce a single idea. Men must learn from each other, and all do have faults alone. The friction of intellects produces thought and the combination of their thoughts produces progress. Then let us have a big fair next Fall. Let the farmers combine their experience—the progress, improvements and discoveries made by each. Then the next year let every farmer conduct his business in the light of the experience and wisdom of all the county's farmers. Shall we have it or shall we be clams?

—Some of our truck farmers have Irish potatoes as large as goose eggs.

Twelve new Butter Dish Machines have been added to the Carolina Veneer Works.

—Mr. A. F. Johnson is gradually improving, though it will be some time yet before he is entirely convalescent.

—The hall here on Tuesday was slight and did but little damages though we understand it was quite severe in some portions of the county. The temperature now is delightful.

—The Fayetteville Observer of last week published the names of the University's class of 1884. We notice among them the names of Wm. H. Thomson and Edward Livingston Faison of this county.

—The Adjutant General of the State Guard has issued a special order that members who fail to attend before June 1st will not be allowed to attend the Encampment. All wishing to enlist should take notice and come forward and do so at once.

—Glenwood High School closed Tuesday. Sorry that we were not able to attend, but understand that the exercises were very creditable and entertaining, and that Senator Kopp's speech was fine. Prof. Craven deserves to be congratulated upon his success.

—THE CAUCASIAN is receiving daily telegrams from various Produce Commission Houses in New York and Philadelphia, quoting the latest sales of truck. These dispatches are immediately posted on THE CAUCASIAN Bulletin Board in front of our office. Truckers would do well to examine them before shipping.

—One of Clinton's enterprising merchants has ordered an invoice of goods directly from England. If it wasn't for the tariff he would astonish you with low prices when the goods arrive. This will be the first lot of goods ever imported directly into this town. You want to know who the merchant is? Ah! that's it. Just watch our advertising columns and see for yourself.

—All strangers visiting Clinton have a word of praise for the town's beauty and the hospitality of its people. We are usually very much pleased with such kind references, but did you ever think of the fact that it is rather a doubtful compliment to be commended for these points alone. Do we not deserve attention for our public spirit, enterprise and go-ahead-iveness? Will some of our good people take the trouble to inform the next visitor to our town on these points, and furthermore, point out to him the tangible evidences of the same.

—We have received the initial number of The Old Homestead, a monthly magazine published at Atlanta, Ga., by Davis Bros. This publication is the only one of its character in the South. Its object is to encourage literature, music, art, science, and the domestic virtues that make home, happy, refined and attractive. This number contains the latest serial by H. Rider Haggard, a complete history of the Independent Presbyterian Church recently destroyed by fire in Savannah, a beautiful poem on the same, an entertaining story by Weigand, farm dots, puzzle department, choice vocal and instrumental music, list of valuable premiums for agents and selected and original matter. The engraving, "The Fates," and those of the Independent Presbyterian Church and its old historic bell are works of art. The attractive title page, the handsome typographical appearance of the magazine, its character, purposes and varied literary and musical features will make it an indispensable necessity in every household. The June number will contain stories, poems, sketches, essays and young folks' department by several brilliant Southern writers, noticeably prominent are those from Georgian. The price of the magazine is only fifty cents a year. Sample copies and premium lists will be sent to any address on application. Davis Bros., publishers and proprietors, Savannah, Ga.

Dorch-Lewis.

Miss Lizzie Lewis was married to Mr. W. T. Dorch, Jr., at Goldsboro, on Wednesday night, 8th inst.—News & Observer.

—Mr. Dorch is a most estimable young man and a rising lawyer of the Goldsboro bar. He was nominated last fall by the Democratic convention of Wayne for tax collector and led the victorious ticket with the largest majority. He was a schoolmate of ours at Chapel Hill and was the most popular student then at the University. Miss Lewis is a daughter of Gen. W. G. Lewis, of Goldsboro. Our hearty congratulations to the happy couple, for whom we predict a happy future.—Ed. CAUCASIAN.]

Masonic Funeral.

The Masonic Funeral of Neill S. Stewart will not be on the 9th Sunday in May next, as proposed, but will be preached some time during the Summer by Rev. J. B. Mack, D. D., of South Carolina.

F. A. PARKER.

Sec'y's Palmyra Lodge No. 147, May 6th, 1889.

Notice F. A. Ex. Co., Meet May 18th.

The Executive Committee of the Sampson County Farmers' Alliance will meet in Clinton on Saturday, May 18th instant, at 10 o'clock.

By order of J. A. OATES, Chairman.

All Through the County.

What Samponians are Doing and Saying.

Send us the news from your township for this column.

LITTLE COHABIE.

Mr. John Sessions while carelessly handling a gun, on the 4th inst., shot the whole load through his foot.

Cotton is feeble. Looks as if it had the rheumatism and jaundice, or a worse complication.

An abundance of peaches, plenty of apples, and "Big Blues" too. So the "Turks" can go west and come up with the huckleberries.

Thanks, Mr. "Plug," we will continue admonitions if you will make the people heed them. We have the interest of the farmer at heart and believe the best way to improve it is to work more and manage better, and depend more on pluck and power, and less on ink and wind. There is enough said and written, but not enough done. We propose to try to cut our part, and if all will, we will give agriculture such an impetus as it has not yet had.

"PLUG, JR."

Mr. W. M. Bullard, who has been in Georgia the past few months, has returned home.

There is a young man in this section that says that he has often heard the question discussed, "Which will a man go the furthest for, the love of woman or the love of money?" and that he always contended for the love of money, until experience has taught him different.

A young lady living near by was trying to drive a calf into a stall, when it refused to go in, so she caught it by the ears and threw it down, and before the calf could get on its feet again it was dragged into the stall and the door closed on it.

What is the matter with T. C. Pope that he has not advertised in THE CAUCASIAN yet for huckleberries? "PLUG."

NEWTON GROVE.

The election in Newton Grove, on Monday, 8th inst., resulted as follows: For Mayor, T. W. Underwood; For Commissioners, S. Simmons, S. Powell, W. W. Williamson, J. H. Benton, A. Lee; For Town Marshal, C. H. Carr.

Services will be conducted by Rt. Rev. Leo Heid, Bishop of North Carolina, in St. Mark's Church, in Newton Grove, on Sunday, the 12th of the present month.

"BIG BLUE."

Dr. C. M. Benton has returned home after spending some time in Dunn. We are pleased to know that our popular young doctor has decided to locate in our village.

Jirz Anders was fishing with a net in J. B. Sutton's pond, a few days since, and in his haul he found a turtle weighing 26 pounds and measuring 36 inches from nose to tip.

TAYLOR'S BRIDGE.

Shad have been quite plentiful here this season. Milton R. Matthis caught fourteen at one haul in the six Runs, near his home, a few days ago.

Mr. B. D. Matthis has been quite feeble for several weeks, but we hope he may soon be restored to health again.

Quite a severe hail in the section around Mt. Gilead Church last Tuesday evening. The stones were about the size of partridge eggs and covered the ground. Much damage was necessarily done to young crops. The same storm did much damage about Cypress Creek, in Bladen county.

MINGO.

Mrs. G. R. Wilson set a hen on fifteen eggs and hatched twenty-one chickens. Who can beat this?

There is a certain family in Upper Mingo that is minus a pillow every Sunday; it is back in place every Monday. It is supposed that the cook is using it for a—what do you call 'em?

Miss Lillie Jackson, of Dismal, is visiting Mrs. J. D. McLamb.

Mr. Editor, we are about through planting our crops.

Rev. Mr. Lee is filling R. A. Johnson's place at Shady Grove.

The Sabbath School opened at Mt. Elam last Sunday.

NORTH CLINTON.

Mr. Giles Clute is home from the mineral spring in Duplin county, where he has been testing the curative powers of the water. His health is somewhat improved. Mr. J. J. Pearls has been trying the water from the same spring with good results.

Mr. C. F. Herring has a complete factory for the manufacture of bean boxes. He saws timber for heading and slats the proper width with a large saw, then takes it to two smaller "cut-off and rip saws," and when it comes from them it is ready to be nailed together. So you see, Mr. Editor, we are a manufacturing people to some extent.

General Green "crab" has put in an appearance even before the cotton plant. Look out for the General and the guano company farmer. Corn looks fairly well, but some complaint of moles and rats.

Beans blooming. "Who knows but we will get a dime some time," if we will be our own huckleberry merchants.

There is a certain young man in this community who says that he started out with a new horse and a new buggy a few years ago. Horse and buggy pretty well worn, "and he rather worsted," and his best girl has not told him anything of importance yet. He has concluded that his girl is not the "best" girl.

SLAB BURNER.

PINEY GROVE.

Last Thursday, at Mr. Lovel Lee's steam mill, Mr. Calvin Boyette, one of the oldest and best citizens of Piney Grove, shot Jim Arrowood, a negro man, one of Mr. Lee's mill hands. The load of the gun took effect in the thick part of his thigh, the wound, though an ugly one, is not considered fatal. Mr. Boyette keeps out of the way of the officers.

Doctor Darden has bought an interest in Mr. T. I. Sutton's steam mill and they expect to put up a cotton gin, saw mill and grist mill, to be located at the Haggrin's Academy. The doctor suffered a serious accident last week by cutting himself on the knee with an axe, it took several hours to stop the flow of blood.

Mr. Wesley Sutton has a fine field of corn, fifteen acres, that will average six inches.

Mr. John Prince has an interesting writing school at Goshen Academy.

Mr. G. L. Giddens has been appointed postmaster at Faison and will take charge of the office soon.

A little girl, six years old, curious to know what caused it to rain, asked her papa if the Lord squeezed the snow to make it rain.

Mr. Jesse Lane is very low with cancer of the stomach and his recovery is considered as hardly possible.

HALLS.

The wheat crop is very promising in this section.

Mr. G. W. Hobbs is confined to his bed with pneumonia.

M. J. A. Barbrey, of Columbus, Ga., is home for a few days attending the bedside of his sick father, who, we are sorry to say, is in a precarious condition.

The quarterly meeting for the Newton Grove circuit met at Hope-well on the 12th instant.

R. G. PEARSON, THE EVANGELIST.

What is the Secret of the Plain Preacher's Power?

(Special Cor. Caucasian.)

We had the good fortune last week while attending Fayetteville court to hear the noted evangelist, Rev. R. G. Pearson, who is conducting a revival in that town. The tabernacle in which the meetings are held is an immense structure erected for that purpose at a cost of $1,100 and with a seating capacity of 2,500. We do not think that at any service the audience numbered less than 2,000. It is fair to judge a tree by its fruit, and judging Mr. Pearson we must rank him among the foremost of the great preachers of today. In the highest and truest sense—in the power to impress his conviction upon an audience, he is an orator. There is nothing ornamental in his discourse, nothing sensational or coarse in his sermons. His logic is simple yet powerful. It is this: "The Bible is true; this is taught in the Bible, therefore this is true." His sermons are noted for plain and direct statements of facts. He relies entirely upon the power of the truth. He talks to the sinners that are in the room, not about those in Asia, Africa, and the isles of the sea, and he talks to the people, into whose face he looks, of their sins and not of some body else. In short he is the plainest, most direct and most forcible preacher we have ever heard.

F. R. COOPER.

Magnolia Blooms.

Mr. Henry Blount, of Wilson, has accepted an invitation to deliver the anniversary address of the Magnolia Reading Club, June 21st.

Our communication sometime ago concerning a lady in an adjoining county seems to have caused some excitement. We are not acquainted with the lady, but were told Monday that she resides in Lenoir county, and not in another one, as some think.

The Festival at the College last Thursday proved a very enjoyable affair. Among the visitors present were Misses Annie Southernland and Wm. Bowden, of Mr. E. A. Faison, of Kenansville.

Rev. George McMillan, of Whiteville, spent a few days with his brother, Dr. W. D. McMillan last week.

Mrs. E. Murphy is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. W. Millard, who is quite sick at her home in Kenansville.

An Explanation.

Mr. Editor: The colored people are very thankful for what the General Assembly has done for them, and shall ever feel grateful for what the good people of Sampson are doing to them. We ask the General Assembly to remove the Normal Schools so as to be available to the colored youth of Sampson and Eastern North Carolina. The farmers could barter out the expenses of School here; but when we send to Salisbury nothing but money will serve. Hence my appeals.

Yours respectfully,

G. W. HERRING.
